In a three body system with a black hole (acting as a gravitational vector field), two objects, a moon (moving at low speed) and a ship, moving at high speed, are on a collision course. At what speed should the ship have to travel to avoid collision with the moon due to the combined gravitational field of the moon and the black hole?